PART 4---WOMEN, POETRY AND PROPHECY

O DAUGHTERS OF GOD

O daughters of God, and from whence is your glory?
From whence is your power that strengtheneth thee?
From whence is your rising, now tell me the story,
The story long hidden that setteth you free.

O daughters of God, there is myst'ry surrounding,
A myst'ry kept secret from ages ago,
But now in the depths of your being is sounding
The clarity born of your origin's glow.

O daughters of God, from the shackles now binding
You rise to the hour which the prophets foretold,
You tear from your eyes all the veilings so blinding,
And see who you are as the myst'ries unfold.

O daughters of God, who with sons stand as equals,
The Father ordaineth that both be revealed,
His family entaileth the glory of sequels,
He planneth in wisdom that both shall be sealed.

O daughters of God, who travail to the timing,
In agony sore till they bring to the birth,
For God has so planned in the glory and rhyming
To use you to solace the sorrowing earth.

O daughters of God, He has promised your placing,
A new thing He doeth as never before,
A woman shall compass a man, we are facing
The time of that birth that is more than mere lore.

O daughters of God, you are clothed in the brightness,
Yes, clothed by the sun with the moon 'neath your feet,
Your head is well crowned by the stars in their lightness,
A wonder you are as the dragon you meet.

O daughters of God, in the battle of ages
You rise to the time by the Father's decree,
For daughters as well as the sons He presages
To burst through the bonds to the great Jubilee!

TO THE DAUGHTERS---

Rise up, daughter of the morning, and sing your song of triumph unto the holy terebinth wherein springs forth life for you. There is a calling forth of the holy women in this hour, for they are not as other women who have no heritage, but they are rather the choice of the Lord's dealings. In them there is a springing up of holy water and holy fire, and with these two shall they bring forth in abundance of both cleansing and purging.

Awake from the dormance of past teachings that have neither given you liberty nor completely opened your eyes, for now is your hour to know your beginning from the foundations of the earth and onward. Now is the time to recognize who you are in the choosing of God and wherefore He has held you in obscurity until now. There is no man who can hinder that which the Lord has predetermined to do, for His choice of a new thing in the earth shall indeed silence many tongues and open many minds. Therefore be you a part of His work, for in you resides a mystery that has not been fully clarified until this present time. Some have seen it afar off, but the time was not yet, but now the time is upon you, and therefore shall the daughters of the Most High God come forth in array chosen of Him and kept secret until this hour.

Know you not that your being is not as it used to be? Know you not that your mind is being changed? Know you not that the seed of the woman shall surely be to crush the serpent's head? Therefore, daughters of light, be aware of your sovereign choosing and your sovereign placing in the purpose of God. You shall indeed be the choice one of your mother but also the choice one of your Father, for He loves His daughters even as He loves His sons. They have been patterned after that part of Him that was lovely in the El Shaddai, and being thus a part of Him shall revert all things unto His glory.

Be not lifted up in your own self or your own wisdom, for what enticeth to holiness like a woman humble in spirit and mind and walking softly before her God? Be you arrayed in purity of thought and heart, and then shall God indeed reveal that hidden thing within you and lead you forth into the climax of these times wherein you shall be a mother of many sons. Complete your preparation in oil of myrrh and many spices, for then shall the King behold you standing arrayed in gold of Ophir and crowned with a crown of many stars.

Creation groans for the manifestation of the sons of God, but the angels sigh for the manifestation of the daughters of God, and herein is a contrast. Does not a woman have power on her head because of the angels? This then infers that the angels await the manifestation of the power of the holy mind to be shown forth in the daughters of God, whereas creation awaits with groaning for that which the daughters bring forth--even the sons who shall loose creation from its bondage. This then connects creation in earth and creation above, for both creations await a manifestation that shall bring forth a liberty for the created beings.

Sigh therefore, O daughters of light even daughters of God, until the shackles of your minds be released and an unending flow of wisdom proceeds therefrom that shall call forth the sons to their task, Be alive and alert to the timing, for the timing is within which shall bring you forth from the position of "lying among the pots" to that of being as "the wings of a dove covered with yellow gold", for then shall be fulfilled the promise, "The Lord gave the word, great was the company of women who published it."---7/30/74

Rejoice, O daughter of Zion, and sing unto the Lord as not done before, for the Lord does a new thing in the earth which shall cause the ears of many to tingle. The song of His redeemed is the song to be sung, and, O daughter of Zion, are you not decreed to do so?

By the process of transplantation were you formed for a specific purpose, and that purpose is about to be fulfilled. From the abstract to the concrete are you coming, therefore arise and sing. Bury the garments of yesterday and be clothed upon with newness, for you are a queen in your own right chosen from before the times of men. Give yourself to the new, and the old shall decrease to nought.---1/8/74

AMAGERA (meaning--handmaid or handmaids of worth)---

Amagera, this is a word unknown heretofore, but to you it shall be a signal of great things to come. It is that mystery that has lain dormant for periods and generations and dispensations awaiting the time of deliverance. Surely as "a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit" have you been until the component parts of your being seemingly would bear no more, yet the wholeness of His all has held you together that by Him you might consist. I have not been unmindful of your tears and groans, but they have ascended before the Lord of Hosts who holds all things in His sway and power. You have been sustained under the pressures indeed lest you fail of life and light.....Your positioning among those of high rank is assured, but this neither abases you nor exalts you, for to you one position is as great as another in the sight of God. Neither high nor low affects you, for the transforming power of infinity is at work to bring you into the likeness of who you are and not who you thought you were. Through your womanhood have come many lessons unable to be learned otherwise, for as women of calling, you shall call other women to their calling until the woman of His composition is completed. Then shall they unveil the sons who are readying for the birth but know not yet how to be born. The woman is not born but formed by a decree of the Holy One, but the sons are born or unveiled by the process of travail. The woman travails not for herself but for others, whereas for herself she cries for the separation of that which is veiled within her that it might come to view. Thus your forming has been a long and grueling process, but that process is well nigh over that you might see who you really are and were. Be not afraid of what is happening within, around and through you, for it is for the deliverance of many. My daughters, My chosen, My elected!.....Laban would detain you, but you shall not be detained. Rather like Joseph's daughters you shall continue to run over the walls. Be not afraid nor affrighted in this hour, for it is the hour of what the prophets have written, and you are safe herein though the earth is being torn into shreds while governments rise and fall.....Remember I have called you this day, Amagera--- for a specific reason, not for a name to be blazoned abroad but for a depth of meaning to be understood. Rise up to your task and calling, for the Lord is with you.---11/7/73
