

CHRIST THE ANTIDOTE REGARDING DEATH

Part 59.

Being Released From Our Personal Sense Of I!

Our wonderful Father never ever takes anything away from us, without having something better in view for us. I have recently been exercised on the intriguing subject of free will & I am quite thrilled yet almost surprised at what is coming to light. I wish to present you with a few texts & comments, if you are at the moment a believer in our total spiritual free will, do not be surprised if you change your opinion!

"For God has consigned (penned up) all men to disobedience, only that He may have mercy on them all [alike]." Rom 11:32. Amp.

Consigned or penned up, can we find any trace of free will here? Notice ALL men. The concordant translation writes, locked up to disobedience.

"For creation was condemned to lose its purpose, not of its own will, but because God willed it to be so. Yet there was the hope." Rom 8:20. Good News Bible.

Not of its own will but because God willed it. In this third day understanding we are certainly seeing things from God's perspective. And why not, are we not truly a very part of the Father Himself? Incidentally the word creation is including much more than animals.

"So then [God's gift] is not a question of human will and human effort, but of God's mercy. [It depends not on one's own willingness nor on his strenuous exertion as in running a race, but on God's having mercy on him.]" Rom 9:16. Amplified.

Some of you may notice that we are repeating some of the texts from Part 58, last months issue, it was as I was writing this that the penny dropped. I am sure that our esteemed brother J Preston Eby wrote on this some years back & maybe that is when the seed was sown. No doubt at that time I did not think that it was important because of the fact that my soil - perception - was not yet ready. So we see that in this text we are told that our experience in God is NOT a question of our human free will but is completely dependent upon God's mercy, not on our own willingness but on our Father having chosen us. Keep in mind we are writing this from the most holy place understanding - in our true identity - where we can now see clearly from the Father's pure understanding & perspective. I think it is thrilling.

"So then He has mercy on whomever He wills (chooses) and He hardens (makes stubborn and unyielding the heart of) whomever He wills. You will say to me, Why then does He still find fault and blame us [for sinning]? For who can resist and withstand His will? But who are you, a mere man, to criticise and contradict and answer back to God? Will what is formed say to him that formed it, Why have you made me thus?" Rom 9:18-20. Amp.

A further back up for these thoughts is also found in Isa. 29:16; 45:9. Let us believe what we read here. He has mercy on whoever HE wills, He also hardens & makes stubborn whoever HE wills. For who can resist His will. But who are we to answer back to the One who is in charge. In the next verse we will see more of the reason for the love that is actually the central theme of this subject.

"Just as He says in Hosea, Those who were not My people I will call My people, and her who was not beloved [I will call] My beloved. And it shall be that in the very place where it was said to them,

You are not My people, they shall be called sons of the living God. And Isaiah calls out (solemnly cries aloud) over Israel: Though the number of the sons of Israel be like the sand of the sea, only the remnant (a small part of them) will be saved [from perdition, condemnation, judgement]!" Rom 9:25-27. Amplified. These verses are taken actually from Hosea 2:23. & also 1:10. The last reference is found in Isaiah 10:21-22.

Notice that God is preparing a people, these are the people in this day that the Father Himself has predestined & also please notice where they are from, not necessarily from the 10 tribes of Israel. But we are told that a remnant of the sons of Israel, a small part of them will be a part of this number. Now the thing that concerns those that are reading this is that YOU are a part of this great speckled bird Jer 12:9, - the speckles denote many races of people - that God is laying His hand on in His predestination wisdom. I say Glory to our wonderful Father who is in His Son, who is my true identity. As hard as it may be for some to accept your will & my will as the Fathers overall will, it is His pleasure & purpose & this was planned in the Father's heart from the very beginning.

"For He says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy and I will have compassion (pity) on whom I will have compassion." Rom 9:15. Amp. Exod. 33:19. On Whom I will have mercy!

"Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unfathomable (inscrutable, unsearchable) are His judgements (His decisions)! And how untraceable (mysterious, undiscoverable) are His ways (His methods, His paths)! For who has known the mind of the Lord and who has understood His thoughts, or who has [ever] been His counsellor?" Rom 11:33-34. Amp. Isa. 40:13, 14.

In the light of what we have just read I personally can see why this is hidden to many & why the most holy place concept of our Father & free will, is not understood. He the Father lowered us & He is also completely responsible for us. Believe it or not He knew & planned this from before the beginning as a matter of fact in Isaiah 46:10 we read;

"Declaring the END from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:"

Can we not now see the fore-ordination of God? Though it may be hard for the religious or natural mind to conceive, God has everything planned & what's more because He is God & is in a realm that not many can remotely perceive. He is able to declare the END before the beginning. Who can know His mind & understand His wonderful purposes? In the most holy place we are now tapping into this.

"But He is unchangeable, and who can turn Him? And what He wants to do, that He does. For He performs [that which He has] planned for me, and of many such matters He is mindful." Job 23:13-14. Amp. We see also that Job interestingly also adds to our theme as regards free will & is as adamant as a number of other writers.

"But we, brethren beloved by the Lord, ought and are obligated [as those who are in debt] to give thanks always to God for you, because God chose you from the beginning as His first-fruits (first converts) for salvation through the sanctifying work of the [Holy] Spirit and [your] belief in (adherence to, trust in, and reliance on) the Truth." 2Th 2:13. Amp.

The thoughts of Paul are also very interesting concerning our theme in that speaking to the Thessalonians he states that God chose you from the beginning as His first-fruits, to myself I would say that this is most convincing & conclusive. Free will in the overall plan of God? I don't think so!! As a clincher I close this thought with this text.

"the dew of the heavens; and seven times [or years] shall pass over you until you learn and know and recognize that the Most High [God] rules the kingdom of mankind and gives it to whomever He will." Dan 4:25b. Amplified. This is the admonition given to Nebuchadnezzar in answer to his pride.

These thoughts are to help us to be released from our personal sense of I.

The Great Plan Of God Is Ours Also!

The great work of God through divinely inspired men, who in conjunction with even the heavenly watchers Dan 4:13&17 is to restore the heritage of man, to bring him back to the estate that he has lost & that he will once again live upon the ethers of his original spiritual plane.

I wish to continue with our thought in Mal 3:17-18 that we shared in our last issue regarding the man-child. Since sharing this with you I have been greatly exercised further on this very thought which we will now consider. In Mal Chap 4:2-3 we read further.

"But unto you who revere and worshipfully fear My name shall the Sun of Righteousness arise with healing in His wings and His beams, and you shall go forth and gambol like calves [released] from the stall and leap for joy. And you shall tread down the lawless and wicked, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, says the Lord of hosts." Mal 4:2-3. Amplified.

I would suggest once again that as we consider very closely these two verses, hidden & tucked away, they are actually more references regarding the manifestation of the man-child ruling & reigning. Notice that the Lord is arising with healing – restoration, remedy, Strong's # 4852 - in His wings & these shall go forth & gambol or rejoice, RELEASED from the stall where they have been confined in their five sensed Adam-ic existence, then please notice that they are now treading down the lawless & the wicked & they are as ashes under the soles of their feet in this wonderful day of the ruling or the shepherding of the man-child with the sceptre - rod - of righteousness.

"A Psalm of David. THE LORD (God) says to my Lord (the Messiah), Sit at My right hand, until I make Your adversaries Your footstool. 2 The Lord will send forth from Zion the sceptre of Your strength; rule, then, in the midst of Your foes. 3 Your people will offer themselves willingly in the day of Your power, in the beauty of holiness and in holy array out of the womb of the morning; to You [will spring forth] Your young men, who are as the dew. 4 The Lord has sworn and will not revoke or change it: You are a priest forever, after the manner and order of Melchizedek. 5 The Lord at Your right hand will shatter kings in the day of His indignation. 6 He will execute judgement upon the nations;" Psa 110:1-6. Amplified.

This to myself is without a doubt the Psalmist prophesying regarding the future of the man-child. Looking closely I see this as a double prophecy, the first concerning the Lord Jesus, the other is referring to the corporate body. Remember when Joshua & Caleb our very worthy forerunners of the promised land message crossed over the river Jordan, they immediately began a battle with the anti-godly forces by opposing them. There was much work to be done in the power of the spirit in subduing the up till then free Antichrist spirited enemies & remember that kings & those in high places were shattered, & judgement was the order of the day. Now we must remember that these were an OT hard line type. The shattering & the judgements of God in the soon coming day will be done in & by the love & the shepherding of a loving Christ, On close inspection of the above verses we read, Sit at My right hand until I make Your adversaries Your footstool. The Lord will send forth from Zion the SCEPTRE - rod, iron staff, Rev 12:5. 19:15. - of Your strength; rule then in the midst of your foes. YOUR people will offer themselves WILLINGLY in the day of your power, in the beauty of holiness. The love & the power of God, if He so desires can subdue any man & bring him to his knees, be it a king or the most beastly of all men; Our great loving Father can subdue all, & it is His full intention; "TO SUBDUE ALL THINGS TO HIMSELF."

In Psalm 2 we read; "The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers plot together, against Jehovah and against His anointed, saying," Psa 2:2. MKJV. These rulers are plotting against not only Jehovah but also against His anointed. We ask the question does the anointed have any further significance than only those who are partakers of the Spirit as in Acts Two? We are given a clue in verses 8 & 9 in the same chapter.

"Ask of Me, and I shall give the nations for Your inheritance; and the uttermost parts of the earth for Your possession. You shall break them with a ROD OF IRON; You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel." Psa 2:8-9. MKJV.

Is it only coincidence that we find once again the rod of iron, the sceptre, that the man-child in Rev 12:5 is to use. Interestingly in several translations we find the reference of verses 8 & 9 added to the end of verse 2.

"From His mouth goes forth a sharp sword with which He can smite (afflict, strike) the nations; and He will shepherd and control them with a staff (sceptre, rod) of iron. He will tread the wine-press of the fierceness of the wrath and indignation of God the All-Ruler (the Almighty, the Omnipotent)." Rev 19:15. Amplified. Once again part of this verse is repeated almost word for word from Rev 12:5 I believe it is most definitely referring to the man-child.

Only One Sacrifice Necessary!

"Sacrifices and offerings are not what please you; gifts and payment for sin are not what you demand. But you made me willing to listen and obey." Psa 40:6. CEV.

No amount of religious five sensed sacrifice instituted by ourselves can please our Father. The only sacrifice needed has already been paid by our sacrificial lamb even Jesus Christ, we cannot do one thing more, anything that we might think to add to this simply becomes self righteousness.

"Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not; but a body hast thou prepared me: whole-burnt-offering and sacrifice for sin thou didst not require." Psa 40:6. Brenton.

What this is meaning in today's scene is that we can do nothing in any way to atone for our sin. When we first come to God we repent or have a change of heart, the truth is that in our now most holy place understanding we know & realise that our Father is not holding any sin against anyone, sin was obliterated once and for all by the death & resurrection of our Christ who was God manifested.

"For You do not desire sacrifice; or else I would give it; You do not delight in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit; a broken and a contrite heart, O God, You will not despise." Psa 51:16-17. MKJV.

The instructions given are very plain. According to this verse & others to match, our Father never did delight in burnt offerings, but it is plain to see that He does delight in a broken spirit and a contrite heart & it is a great comfort to know that He will never despise this offering.

"He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does Jehovah require of you but to do justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God?" Mic 6:8.

In reading from Micah 6:6-9, we are given some fine instruction. What are His requirements of us? Justice, mercy & humility. When Paul mentions that we were to work out our salvation, he was definitely not inferring that we were to work our way into the goodness & righteousness of our Christ, any righteousness we have is without work or cost & it comes free gratis, this was accomplished & might I also say finished at Calvary.

Once again all of these things are, Releasing Us From From Our Personal I!

Misunderstandings!

Many years ago I sat under a Pentecostal pastor for about eight years, in my opinion he was as fine a man as any that I had known to that time & I had much respect for him. One Sunday evening he had another minister to preach to us & this man declared that he believed in the restitution of all things & that eventually all men would be saved. In my spirit I felt something & along with one or two others we were wondering what comments our pastor would make. On the following Wednesday evening he made a flat statement, - If all men are going to be saved then for most of my life I have been wasting my time in preaching the gospel - now he may have been right in his conscience from where he stood in saying this but because of lack of understanding he ruined & quashed for us at that time - because of where we were in our thinking - any hope of pursuing what we had been told on the previous Sunday. Incidentally from where many of us now stand today he was dead wrong. All because of a misunderstanding! It took another long fifteen years before I was to come into a higher understanding of reconciliation. Many times we can make flat statements from our aspect of seeing things but this does not mean that we are right. My fine ex-pastor made his statement in all good conscience from where he stood, but this did not make him right. As a matter of fact the whole problem was a misunderstanding of what really was the truth. Declaring things from our own perspective does not automatically make us right even though we may feel it so. Misunderstanding & misinterpretation are two of the greatest enemies of knowing the truth about any matter. If we have a mindset & do not agree by faith with the word finished it would be wise for ourselves to look closely into the matter. In Australia we are partly protected as I know nothing whatsoever regarding any finished work ongoing arguments & because of this I have no mindset concerning the issue & I am able to hear what the spirit tells me. We first of all saw that in the finished work of Calvary that sin consciousness had been dealt with & also that we are now new creatures in Christ. Do you believe that? Of course you do. What is so hard to believe about the word finished. It happened at the cross, Christ said it was finished, I believe it. If there happens to be a disagreement because of terms & our understanding I am sorry, but what I am seeing is backed up the word, this wonderful quote from Des Walter & from where I am standing it says it all.

THE CROSS SET US FREE FROM OUR MORTALITY BY REMOVING THE LIFE IN THE BLOOD. IT WAS THE TOMB THAT CONCEALED THE TRANSITION FROM DEATH TO LIFE. BUT IT WAS THE RESURRECTION THAT RAISED UP ALL MANKIND AS A NEW CREATION PEOPLE WITH NO CONNECTION TO LIFE BEFORE THE CROSS.

I would add to this that in the true sense of the word from the most holy place understanding in my strong opinion, IT IS FINISHED. The question is, will we believe it? To some this may seem like a difficult saying. There was a very similar situation in the sixth chapter of John. When Jesus made the statement "unless you eat of my flesh & drink of my blood" Jn 6:53-56. Many of his disciples could not understand this & if we read through to verse 66 we see because of this hard saying that "many of His disciples drew back and no longer accompanied Him." The reason for this is that Jesus was doing a sorting out. Know this that as we walk on in Christ there will come further understandings & revelations & please do not think that because of this that you will always receive a pat on the head from others, as a matter of fact I have found that the more I am seeing that agrees seem to become fewer. Look at Jeremiah, look at Ezekiel & many of the prophets, the more light they were given the less popular they were. We cannot change this for this the way it is in the Adam-ic dream, many mistake the dream for the reality. The dream - touch, taste, sight, smell & hearing - is what most accept as their reality & this acceptance of what most are experiencing does not include faith, especially the faith which includes the finished work & is the spiritual reality, which is actually opposed to the Adam-ic dream of supposed reality. I repeat the spiritual reality is opposed to the Adam-ic dream. The only antidote to awake is to receive "by faith and not by sight" that which opposes our five senses & this includes that which was accomplished on the Cross & what Jesus Christ said without any side tracking or excuse, it is finished or we might say a done deal. And many are also asserting even today that this is an hard saying.

Those of you who are receiving this, let us now trust God who is the Author instigator & producer of our faith to lead us step by step into victories untold as the beauty of what we have begins to enlarge in the reality of our understanding day by day.

In Job 28:1-21, we read some wonderful verses here & I will select several which are most applicable to our theme.

"Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold where they refine it." Job 28:1. Amp

Yes I am glad to say that there is a wonderful mine for spiritual silver & gold & we have access to where it is refined & this of course is within our most holy place even within our Christ identity.

"Its stones are the bed of sapphires; it holds dust of gold [which he wins]. That path no bird of prey knows, and the falcon's eye has not seen it. The proud beasts [and their young] have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed over it." Job 28: 6 -8.

Within this mine are sapphires as well as gold. In this wonderful secret place no birds of prey which includes falcons & proud beasts including lions - those who would try to tread down & destroy the wonderful gems of jewels, gold & silver being revealed & appreciated in this mine – that cannot see, understand or even know about it.

"[Man] binds the streams so that they do not trickle [into the mine], and the thing that is hidden he brings forth to light." Job 28:11.

We are told here that our spiritual man is able to bind the streams or destructive floods that would try & inundate that which our Father is now bringing to light. This is wonderful news for all.

"It is hidden from the eyes of all living, and knowledge of it is withheld from the birds of the heavens." Job 28:21.

The contents of this mine we are informed are hidden from the eyes of all that is natural - the natural man - & the knowledge of it is withheld from the destructive birds of prey which could represent those who in good conscience are not yet in a place to understand & are not yet in agreeance with a finished work. I very much like the phrase in the Linda Musgrove song which fits our theme perfectly.

I'm not climbing the mountain I'm already there!

"But He knows the way that I take; when He has tried me, I shall come forth as gold." Job 23:10. MKJV. As per the following!

When men eventually come to themselves & realise the fact that in reality that they are each a true son of God, & have fully realised that within themselves lie all the powers of the Christ, then he is a spiritual conqueror & all the elements will hear his word & will submit gladly to his will. Fear & unbelief would bind the will of man, when these are dealt with & turned aside, then the will & power of God in man will know no hindrances & the spoken Christ word in man will accomplish all & exactly His complete desire.

Our pattern Son Jesus in having surrendered His whole nature, had no self will, none of His own desires within in the temple that was His human form to the Christ within. John the Baptist had called Him the "Lamb of God" because He had surrendered all in the flesh man of his lower nature to the divine Spirit, God. "The Lamb of God which takes away the sin of the world." The pure & perfect soul of Jesus Christ, perfect in it's simplicity, free from any guile, which had been prepared through ages of time for this divine revelation to humanity & that was that every man had within him the power, the light, & if man responded to that light & he too would have full access into the same kingdom, the same power even the same status, & as His, Christ's corporate body be even as Christ Himself. "And saviours shall come up on mount Zion." Obad 1:21a. ASV. What a wonderful selfless Saviour we have. As we increase in our personal growth, spiritual enlargement & appreciation, at least two things are coming to light, one is a further understanding of what Jesus meant when He told us that it is finished & the second is that all of this is also releasing us from our personal sense of I.

A Large Place!

"He brought me forth into a large place; He delivered me because He delighted in me." 2Sa 22:20.

"He brought me forth also into a large place; He was delivering me because He was pleased with me and delighted in me." Psa 18:19.

"And You have not given me into the hand of the enemy; You have set my feet in a broad place."

Psa 31:8. The following verse which is the previous verse & in this case gives a slightly different reason for this blessing.

"I will be glad and rejoice in Your mercy and steadfast love, because You have seen my affliction, You have taken note of my life's distresses," Psa 31:7.

"Out of my distress I called upon the Lord; the Lord answered me and set me free and in a large place." Psa 118:5. All of the above verses are from the Amplified Bible.

I wish to inform all readers that this large place has nothing to do with any affiliation with any special group as God's true people are an organism & not a man made organisation. Our third realm affinity in the most holy place is with Spirit & our meeting place is in the true temple within ourselves we do not necessarily need any church building, we meet Him in His house wherever we might be geographically "You are the temple of God" knowing our Father in Spirit & in Truth is not in any 'in part' doctrine per/se but of knowing your true eternal self which is both in your singular & corporate temple where you have access to the original mind that we were given by our wonderful Father in the very beginning. Oh what a wonderful large place He is having man to realise that He is already in, as this has already been accomplished by the death, resurrection & the glorification of Jesus Christ. Our great God is now having us to realise that it is already a done thing. Why? For He is delighting in His Christ seed & is delivering us into His large place because He has seen our past distresses even the veil of wretchedness that has been cast over all of the nations for so long Isa 25:7 Amp. This is being dealt with right now & He along with our thankfulness is preparing for Himself a suitable abode fit for THE KING.

"Out of my distress I called upon the Lord; the Lord answered me and set me free and in a large place." Psa 118:5. Keeping in mind that in our increasing knowledge of these things we are being released from our personal sense of I.

Be Still And Know That I Am God!

We have made mention several times of our personal sense of I & whether we are willing to admit it or not, this I in every man is prone to error. There is another more wonderful I that we are a partaker of & that is our true eternal I. Our example, Jesus, told us that "I and My Father are One". Some are a little dubious in that to liken our eternal I to the I of Jesus Christ is overstepping the mark but I have good news for all in that you were made in the exact same image as your Creator the Father of all spirits. We were all created IN Christ Jesus who is the true eternal Son of the Father.

"Be still, and know that I am God! I will be praised among the nations, I will be praised in the earth." Psa 46:10. MKJV.

In the original text the word AM is in italics & has been inserted. So originally it would read like "Be still and know that I God." Bringing it into our language today a better rendition would read "Be still and know that the I is God." It is the plan of our Father that He will not only be praised among the nations but also in all the EARTH. When man eventually realises his true relationship to his Creator this appreciation will fill the earth, our glorified entities as well as our heavenly - the true understanding of heaven is that it is wherever the presence of God is – in the book of Revelation 21:3b we read,

"The abode of God - tent or tabernacle - is with men He will live – encamp tent – among them and they shall be His people."

It is a good thing that we be still & know that the I in us is actually our Fathers Spirit, Himself, & that He is actually now tabernacle-ling Himself within our very own being even in our most holy secret place. Actually this has always been the case, the culprit of course has been the veil of the Adam-ic dream, the five sensed perception of things which have in the past blinded or veiled our minds.

Be still, "They that wait upon the Lord shall be renewed." Be still and know what? That both I & yourself are of ONE identity. Is not this what Jesus meant when He said "I and My Father ARE one." Now this time let us read it in it's true sense & leave the verse exactly the way that it was meant to be written. Be still & know that I God! Oh yes as we have mentioned in an earlier edition, our I in our pre-identity is the very same as who Job referred to when he penned,

"When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?" Job 38:7. KJV.

Yes there is a finished work in each of us ready to be revealed & in this realisation it is releasing us from our personal sense of I which is the very subtle Adam-ic man who is also known as the God of this world.

"The devil in the minds of many that are religious, is the greatest power in our land, & though a myth, he dandles on his knee both youths & aged....The fear of evil is a myth, is an illusion & a snare; but it will live until some mighty power shall come to raise the ether to the plane of light." That mighty power my dear readers are in fact the sons of God, the man-child who are very much now in the preparation & the realisation of their destiny.

"Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah of hosts will perform this." Isaiah 9:7. ASV.

Where is this to take place? "Thy will be done on EARTH." When God spoke to King David in 1Chronicles 17: 8-10, in verse 10b we read, "I will subdue all your enemies. Furthermore, I foretell to you that the Lord will build you a house (a blessed posterity). Amp.

Where is this to take place? God is building His kingdom here on earth, unfortunately most people of Christendom have made their goal a certain place they call heaven, the religious world are in for a mighty, wonderful surprise as the real truth is being realised as to where & what heaven really & truly is!

When Jesus mentioned in Mat 6:10. " Your kingdom come, Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." He was meaning that the earth would be filled with His glory. There is not much mention in the church scene about this today. It would seem that this was what Jesus was emphasising, for instance in Lk 11:2, we read "And He said to them, When you pray, say: Our Father Who is in heaven, hallowed be Your name, Your kingdom come. Your will be done ON EARTH as it is in heaven." If we follow very carefully the gospel that Jesus preached He was informing us that the earth would eventually be filled with the Glory of God & that His kingdom was to be established upon this earth as per Isa 9:7 the above text. I pray that this has been of help to us all in the aiding of the spirit of our understanding to,
