

ABSTRACT PRAYER, LETTER TO PAM...

Hi Pam... Sounds like you are one busy lady. I'll share something you may be aware of or you may not. You have shared some things with me that tell me you and Terri have gone through some neat things. They didn't seem so neat in the making, but the outcome concerning your relationship with each other is apparently most rewarding. Also as I read all of your e-mail I felt love for you both. In the love that was generated as I read your letter there were blessings.

Whether or not I even utter a request for you the blessings will find you. How do I know this? I know it because this is how the Love which {is God} works. It goes like this... you contact me and for what ever reason I am touched in the process. Love{God} takes that emotion that he generated in my heart and does the best thing for you as only he could, because only he knows exactly what is best for you. I certainly do not. I don't have to know this because it works every time regardless of whether I am aware of it or not.

This means that we all are a benefit to each other in our contacts, whether we {at any given time} are aware of it or not. I don't utter prayers as much as I once did for others, since I have been made aware of the neat thing that happens through us as Love takes possession of us. When anyone who is Love/God/spirit based, learns of a need for another member, empathy is generated according to the need felt. The Love /God in the vessel then goes to work and does the rest. And Love/God does all his work perfectly and in perfect timing.
