

BREAKING NEWS! YOU CAN GET BEYOND FEAR!

The latest Brad Cullen book, Beyond Fear: The Grand Entrance ...is now available.

Brad and I decided to submit the manuscript of this book to another publisher, Publish America, for the purpose of getting it into the hands of people who would not ordinarily visit our website. It is an important and powerful book.

An easy way to order it is simply by clicking this link Beyond Fear. It will take you directly to a link to the publisher with ordering information and the publisher's description of the content.

In my opinion you will be doing a favor for yourself and anyone you know, by recommending they take this simple and beginning step to get beyond any and all fears (both conscious and sub-conscious), that keep each of us from living our lives to the fullest extent possible, right NOW ...a marvelous gift just in time for Christmas.
