

IS THIS FOR YOU?

(an e-mail exchange)

IS THIS FOR YOU? (THE WEAPONS OF OUR WARFARE)

Some people are unaware of the war that is continually raging in the unseen world around us. Some people (rightly) believe that the war is already over. Some people also (rightly) understand who they really are... and that no enemy can attack them. This latter is fine for people with that understanding... and it is the truth. For others... those who are afflicted by any number of things... may need to see things in another light as a stepping stone to yet more light. Hopefully this is one small ray of light (from the SOURCE OF ALL LIGHT) that will peek through the clouds to those that need it.

The following is an e-mail exchange I feel a gentle nudge to share with all of you. Many of you on this particular e-mail list have been healed or "delivered" from myriad physical problems... and are beginning to walk in the presence and power of God's own Spirit. To others this may bring a bit of understanding. To yet others – the whole discussion will border on the bizarre. Several years ago when I was first introduced to the topic... I didn't recognize any border... I thought it was totally bizarre and walked away.

Many of you are "far beyond" this place of understanding... and for you it will be "old hat."

Some of you may be stumbling (don't we all at times) and tripping over your own "doctrinal positions" that prohibit you from walking and operating in His presence and power in this particular way.

Some of you may be operating in His presence and power in ways that are totally different from what is exposed herein... may I humbly cheer you on... in your own particular walk of His own matchless power, love, peace and grace however it may be manifesting in you.

I am not sharing this for any self-aggrandizement, period. Brad Cullen is NOTHING! But the fact is that Jesus the Christ (or however you prefer to phrase it) lives and operates in me... so that "it is no longer 'I' that lives, but Christ lives in me". Therefore, please take care over what you may be tempted to argue about.

If the following isn't for you, press delete. I hope it ministers to you as it has to me... both in the reading of lady's words who wrote to me... and what God gave to me to give her in response. You choose whether you believe it is God that gave these words to me. Again, please be careful that you do not engage in blasphemy of His own Spirit... better you simply shake your head, press delete, and walk off -- if you cannot receive this exchange as being in any way for you.

Here goes... as you will see in her note... she asked that I delete her name... therefore her name is replaced by an underlining (_____).

Brad, thank you for asking to post this. You may do so. Just delete my name. I had no idea you would want to post the things I wrote. God knows all things. We as the body of Christ most definitely need each other. One person cannot receive it all, it takes all of us together breaking our bread and distributing it among ourselves, then to others. As the saying goes, "assembly required" and that is true.

Brad, I need to ask for help, I am having a difficult time with my blood pressure, (I have always been healthy, this is something I do not know how to deal with) it is trying to adhere to me as a parasite, I have no place in me for a parasite of any kind. I am becoming ill from this and chest pain also is beginning to try and appear. Sometimes when we are the one in the middle of the storm its very difficult to see, especially with illness. Just give me the words of prayer to speak to this or the words that Jesus would speak in power and authority to cause this to take flight. If the Father gives you the words, that is.

I can do nothing of myself, and yet, I can do all things through Christ Jesus who strengthens me. He is wonderful. He is here, there and everywhere.

Good night , _____

My lengthy response...

I have asked for His light for your problem for several hours, _____ ... and here is what I see. You have rightly discerned that the blood pressure thing is caused by an entity attempting to gain a stronghold in you... do you understand what I am saying here? If not, please write back... it is very simple... but if we don't need to go into it... let's not. You also identified the pain as an entity... your words, in both cases... "trying to adhere to me as a parasite" -- and "trying to appear." That is excellent understanding... you also "see" that there is "no room in me for a parasite of any kind."

You ask that I give you the words to speak to this... or the words that Jesus would speak in power and authority to cause this to take flight... Dad has given me these words for you and I will tell you what they are below... but first let's deal with two other issues. One, is the Scriptural principle, "Bringing every thought captive unto Christ." Two, You already rightly understand that you are in the midst of a "battle."

Now I could tell you that the battle is already over and the enemy is defeated and I would be telling you "a" truth. Because the enemy has already been defeated... but as you also rightly understand, when you are in the middle of an attack (blood pressure and pain or fear of pain) it is difficult sometimes to lean on your own faith. Yet I see by your words, that faith is exactly what you want and need – that is, the faith to get rid of this stuff... in the heat of battle, so to speak, and God is honoring your choice even as I write this.

Two thoughts you need to "bring unto captivity to Christ" are these... 1. "I am having difficulty with my blood pressure." 2. "Chest pain is trying to appear."

The only power these defeated enemies have is to lie to our minds. Our minds are powerful instruments and we need to exercise control over them. Tell these "thoughts" that they are lies! Speak this aloud: "That is a lie!" Speak this intensely, with authority. DO NOT STOP speaking it until you know it is true deep in your spirit.

The Bible gives us three offensive weapons of warfare with which to deal with these enemy agents: a. The blood of Jesus Christ. There really is power in the blood of Jesus Christ... it isn't just some religious word... unless that is what we relegate it to; b. Our words of truth; c. Not having fear unto death.

Once you have spoken the truth about this attack... i.e., "That is a lie!" to the point that you really "know" it is a lie... then use your weapons of warfare to finish off the enemy. "I come against you with the blood of Jesus Christ... by which you are already defeated." (this is the word of truth) ... therefore, you are using weapons a. & b. at the same time... a double barreled shot gun, so to speak. "Not having fear unto death" (weapon c) is a double edged sword... "God has not given you a spirit of fear but of a sound mind..." actually and correctly translated from the original as "the mind of Christ" – the enemy is using fear as a tactic to debilitate you – to soften you up for the kill, so to speak. Say, "I want the will of God no matter what the cost... and His will is that I not die from your nonsense... I have no fear! I bind you in the name of Jesus Christ -- you cannot communicate, call for replacements or transfer... and you will go when I command it... and you will not cause any pain or discomfort of any kind as you leave. Now, by the blood of Jesus Christ – GET OUT! Go wherever Jesus Christ has assigned you to go."

I realize that this is quite a bale of hay that has been dumped on you, _____. But refuse the thought that this is just a lot of mumbo jumbo – it isn't. I have seen many in the so called "deliverance ministry" fall into defeat... because they began to understand that so much of it was simply unneeded baggage... replete with self justification for their "ministry"... that they put the useful and practical part – the weapons – on the shelf... and the enemy has a hey-day with them. Don't let this happen to you. Treat these words and thoughts with respect, because they came from God... not from Brad Cullen.

I am standing with you even now... Thank You, Father, that you are giving _____ clarity of mind, and a continued trust that You are with her and have used the vessel she chose as the place to start on a whole new adventure of faith.

This is exciting stuff, _____, ... and a perfect example of your "assembly required" – thanks for that one!

Now then, one thing I have seen repeated over and over again... is that sometimes pain and symptoms of disease will seem to "come back"... this may occur in just a few hours... or days or sometimes in a month or so. Here is a final truth... and one of the most exciting parts of being able to walk ultimately in perfect health... free from all attacks with an understanding that "Jesus the Christ" lives in you and you are no longer in need of anything... you are... but until then:

The lie that will accompany this "return" of symptoms or pain is exactly that... A LIE. In the authority of the Creator of the Universe and everything in it, you relegated the entity causing elevated blood pressure and pain to wherever Jesus Christ had assigned it to go. It is gone... this new attack (if it indeed comes along) is NEW. A new agent of the enemy masquerading as the old... it will often come disguised as a thought that people speak... "Oh no, it's back."

When that happens, you can jump for joy and speak with authority... "Oh no, you are not back... you are a lie... and I come against you with the blood of Jesus Christ – you have no right to be here. Do not communicate, call for replacements or transfer. Go to wherever Jesus Christ has assigned for you to go. Now get out!
Here is a prayer I was just given to give you as the finale...

"Father, I thank You that you have given me all authority over the agents of my enemy. Fill every vacancy in this body I occupy with Your own Holy Spirit... I now walk in Your fullness and recognize only You. I walk now only in Your presence and power... and will let You be my Spokesman. I am in perfect health... in fact, I AM... because You are in me. Thank You!"

_____, I have shared the following, that God gave me, with many people over the past several years... and it has provided enormous growth in all that have practiced it.

Speak this several times a day... I have for years... "I am in and of the will of God. Your presence and power are upon me. I want and have nothing else and no other thought or feeling shall find a permanent place in me. I AM!"

Go in peace... _____, your faith, which is His faith, which is Him, has made you whole!

In His matchless LOVE,

Brad
