

I AM GOD....

I AM God...I am not my body but the I AM that I AM is the Life that uses my body in order to manifest.

That Life that resides in my body is the same Life that uses any other body that has Life in it.

The Life that uses my body is not just a little bit of Life but the whole of Life. Therefore I AM complete in Him, omnipotent etc.

I AM awareness and to the extent that I am aware of who I AM, to that extent I AM. Awareness is not just knowledge but rather experience...which I have often called deep knowledge.

In perfect truth I AM.....period.
But included in the all and in all is the image.

That image is man who said:
I will be like the most high.

That is the original sin, because the idea is one of separation making the all in all which is one into God, and an image through whom God experiences Himself.

The image distorts the purity of I AM into a being of separation, in other words many parts making up the whole.

This image or illusion or lie makes up the duality of God and image needed for manifestation.

That is why illusion is reality because there is only the all and in all which is one, just as the shadow is the image of whatever the sun shines on.

Even though the image or shadow is not the real object, nevertheless the shadow is real. Importantly, the shadow has no power of itself, it cannot move without the whatever, which has that power moving.

And so is with man created in the image of God.

Man has no power of himself, but can only move as God moves.

Of myself I can do nothing and it is (always) the Father that doeth the works.

Man thinks he thinks but he doesn't really.
Thoughts as everything emanate from the Source, God.
The sun shines, it is hot.

We seek out a tree and sit under it in the shade where it is cooler than in the open.

We say it is cooler in the shade. But it is not the shade which provides the coolness. The shade has no power in itself to do or provide anything, it is the tree that provides the shade and hence the coolness.

The shade as it were manifests the power of the tree to provide shade.
And so is man.

Jesus said as a man thinks so is he.
Man is complete in Him, perfect.
There is no level of perfectness.
Man is perfect because he is the image of God.
The shadow of a tree is always perfect.
If it is cold in the shade, then that is perfect.
If it is too hot in the shade, then that is perfect.
It has nothing to do with what man thinks.
For all that is, is God and God is perfect, including man.
So what then does Jesus mean?

A baby is perfect, a young man is perfect, and an old man is perfect for all there is, is God.

But to the degree that man is enlightened or has awoken from his sleep, to that degree of awareness which is according to the "thought" of man, is he perfect according to man.

Perfection is not a label in this sense, but a state of enlightenment

In God's sight everything is perfect, including man.

Jesus spoke to and about men that were unenlightened.

No need to speak to Himself.

And yet He called man brethren because as He thought, that is truth.

For His thoughts were taken captive unto Christ.
