

LIGHT AND DARKNESS

Quote from zero...{Stephen}

"Duality is a process that brings deliverance as it did for Paul in Romans 7. But this is the activity of Divine Grace that works in DARKNESS that enables the seed to send forth roots deep into the ground so it can shoot upwards, ascend towards the light. You cannot have one WITHOUT THE OTHER BOTH ARE EQUAL AND NECESSARY"

Cindy...

Light and darkness, negative and positive, to repeat what zero said, both are necessary and cannot be divided. We cannot have one without the other; they're two ends of the same stick. To the ego or carnal mind, light is good, but darkness is bad, but what if the darkness has a grand purpose far beyond our ability to comprehend? That is exactly the purpose of what to the carnal mind is good and evil. Any sound mind will tell you that nothing exists but God. The carnal mind is insane, because it cannot fathom there being only One.

The divine Mind cannot behold "evil" simply because it does not exist in the higher consciousness. The concept is not there. It does exist from the dual visions perspective which is outside the kingdom. God has no perception problem. It is we who have double vision. In these days however, many are beginning to see with the single vision. Jesus is quoted as saying, "If thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be filled with light." to be without the garden is to dwell in unreality and that is where we've been for eons. This I believe is the kingdom age. In this kingdom there's only God.

Humanity, the prodigal son is beginning to stir, and awaken from the hypnotic dream of two powers. When confusion knocks at my door, I revert back to the premise of one power, one person, and this speaks loud and clear that all is ok. We live in a perfect universe and all is well. Everything is doing exactly as it was designed to do. Since a perfect God created it all, it could be nothing less than perfect. God has a dark side as well as light, but as zero intimated his darkness is blinding light. I once read where our life is like a tapestry, and we view it from the bottom which shows many ugly threads running here and there. God however sees the top as he beautifully weaves each life.

Return To Home Page