

AQUARIUS TODAY'

What do the Scriptures say? And what does the Living creature, or the living word say? What does humanity say?

Yes! I hear the voice of the Father' speaking out of this life' that we live daily. You know what I mean? The voice of the FOOT COMPANY, the ones who have placed the living word in the reality of moment by moment WALKING IT OUT IN SHOE LEATHER. SELAH!

The Loving voice who speaks clearly, OUT OF OUR PERSONAL EXPERIENCE. Soooooooo? Experience cries in the streets of our understanding. Since Aquarius symbolically, and scribe worthy is Rueben, the firstborn of Leah and Jacob. The age of Aquarius answers as the Tribe of Rueben.

The Spirit speaks expressively and clearly thru the Age of Aquarius or should we say THE AGE OF RUEBEN. Rueben is named by Leah ( her heart burning within her to BE her husband's first choice). Ah! Now My husband will "SEE" Surely the Lord hath 'LOOKED' (SEES) MY AFFLICTION, and now my husband will love me. Remember this Lady is the Weak Eyed one. So she puts her trust in her seed son, Rueben.

Moving on to Gen 30:14. Here we see Rachel seeking Ruebens mandrakes (mandrakes produce and aphrodisiac (an arousal of passions). Could it be a type of our present day Viagra? Seems we are inundated with talk of passions, either how to arouse them or how to control them. As we look at Rueben's prophesy in Genesis the 49th chapter. Following the journey of Rueben's life much comes to light. He is the first born of Jacob. As the firstborn the heaviness of responsibilities are inherent. Surely we all can Identify with our brother 'Rueben' in our desire (remembering that Rueben leads the camp of DESIRE). He begins to cast his eye upon Bilhah' his fathers concubine. All of Jacobs wives were very attractive. Bilhah's name means: to be terrified. Nothing pleases the Ego man like SLAYING A DRAGON IN SOMEONES PATH. So his compassion ( ego desire) overrode the Spirit man. How do we know this? The scripture declares that Rueben LAY WITH Bilhah. It seems to me that the proof is in the reality of the moment and in the outworking if found in the lower realms of the passions. So it behooves us ,to keep our passions lifted up. As DESIRES (OUR PERSONAL) 'PASSIONS' present themselves, perhaps we should examine what the garment is, that it comes clothed in? Could we be deceived by our own interpretations or judgments from only one concept?

Considering the word written in Gen. 49. Thou shalt not excel. It means as long as we sit in judgement of any given situation After the lower story (the lowest realm or frequency in man) This could be a purely physic thought manifesting as one who can Kill the Dragon, which becomes physical and then manifest in the lowest part of our body. It is difficult to know how often we misinterpret what we SEE and what we KNOW and make a judgment call? In our growth, epically in our Seeing abilities we are becoming more and more aware of the spirit of the matter. So can we miss it? Of course we can. We see Rueben in the heat of his youth, shall we say missing the mark? But we also see Rueben in his growth, allowing Judah to take the reins of the Firstborn. We also see Rueben redeeming himself as he walks forward. He takes his prophesy in stride with a humility. Humility is a sure vehicle to get us where we are going in our journey. We should take heart and receive encouragement from the body of Christ and the great spirit of Christ. It is a powerful and wonderful day to live and manifest in. Our beautiful divinity is showing.
